CDUSC Wellbeing Week Recap

CDUSC successfully ran CDU'S inaugural Wellbeing Week from March 16-22. Big shout out to our external collaborators: SAMAF Consultants, Kindness Shake, Red Cross NT and Headspace for working with us and sharing your support and resources for CDU student. We would also like to thank our internal collaborators: CDU Yoga Club, CDU BSA, CDU Faculty of Health, CDU Career Centre, and more who helped us successfully deliver the Wellbeing Week.

Through this initiative, we engaged with more than 100 students through the events. The project brought us together as students, staff and organisations to focus on student's wellbeing.

Congratulations to our challenge winners and to all attendees and participants. We look forward to more engagement with our upcoming projects. If you'd like to share any feedback from Wellbeing Week, please feel free to reach out to cdusc@cdu.edu.au.

What has CDUSC secretly been working on?

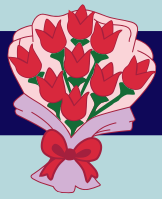
Since the start of our 2026 term, CDUSC has been actively working behind the scenes on student issues and concerns. We are proud to announce the formation of two CDUSC Committees:

1. CDUSC Inclusive Sub-Committee
2. CDUSC Food Market Committee

Our members are also working on amazing initiatives such as Women's Spotlight, as well as addressing student discounts, menstrual products on CDU campuses, food insecurity, transportation and more. Keep an eye out for more details in the future.

If you are keen to be involved in any of the above, please reach out to CDUSC via email: cdusc@cdu.edu.au

Thank You Ayush and Gilbert!



The CDU Student Council would like to announce the resignation of two of our valuable members, Gilbertofer and Ayush, who have been with us since the start of 2025 and contributed to multiple initiatives and projects throughout their terms. Gilbert served as the Vice-President and Ayush served as the Online Officer for CDUSC in 2025. They have been engaged in student voices, student wellbeing and support online events, shuttle bus feedback and weekly breakfasts with CDUSC. We wish you all the best for your future endeavors and thank you for your valuable time on the council.
