

CHC33021 Certificate III in Individual Support

DESCRIPTION

This qualification reflects the role of individuals in the community, home, or residential care setting who work under supervision and delegation as a part of a multi-disciplinary team, following an individualised plan to provide person-centred support to people who may require support due to ageing, disability, or some other reason.

These individuals take responsibility for their own outputs within the scope of their job role and delegation. Workers have a range of factual, technical, and procedural knowledge, as well as some theoretical knowledge of the concepts and practices required to provide person-centred support.

The skills in this qualification must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian standards, and industry codes of practice.

To achieve this qualification, the candidate must have completed at least 120 hours of work as detailed in the Assessment Requirements of the units of competency.

ELIGIBILITY/ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

There are no mandatory entry requirements for this qualification. However, applicants who wish to commence this course need to have a general command of spoken and written English to meet industry standards for communication.

To be eligible to gain a placement in community services, aged care, or disability care facility, students may be required to obtain:

- Ochre Card to work with children.
- NT Police Clearance.

Students may also require occupational health screening, including vaccinations.

| Location(s) | Duration* | Study mode |
|-------------|--|--|
| Casuarina | Full-time 12 months Part-time 18 months | Face-to-face, simulated, workplace assessment. |

* Duration will vary depending on how long a student takes to reach the required competency level.

Students are informed about the online platform used for the qualification, receive access to the qualification site, detailed instructions on usage, and associated computer systems requirements to undertake the qualification.

Students will undertake a practical placement in an aged care setting to complete the mandatory 120 hours work placement. The placement officer will facilitate work placements.

If a student is currently working, CDU-TAFE will liaise with the workplace to "explore options for the establishment of" a work placement agreement to facilitate the assessment of performance evidence in the workplace "(please note, this is subject to the workplace and cannot be guaranteed).
