INTRODUCTION

The University as an education provider is committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of children who are involved in or may be affected by University activities. In accordance with the Charles Darwin University and Union Enterprise Agreement, Working with Children Policy and the Northern Territory Care and Protection of Children Act 2007 and Care and Protection of Children (Screening) Regulations, all staff members who are employed in child-related work or, their duties involve or are likely to involve, contact with a child must obtain a Working with Children Clearance Notice and associated Ochre Card.

A Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card is a prerequisite for gaining employment with the University and once employed, maintaining currency is mandatory for continued employment in any child-related field with the University. Staff members already employed by the University who move to an identified position undertaking child-related work must be able to obtain a Working with Children Clearance and Ochre Card and maintain its validity throughout his or her employment with the University.

A reference to Working with Children Clearance and Ochre Card under NT legislation is taken to mean the equivalent in any other Australian jurisdiction in which the staff member is employed.

INTENT

The intention of this document is to define clearly, the obligations of both the University and the individual University staff member with regard to the Care and Protection of Children Act 2007, specifically the Working with Children Clearance and associated Ochre Card.

This document applies to all staff members who work or, have the potential to work with, children or in child-related fields, in either a paid or voluntary capacity.

RELEVANT DEFINITIONS

In the context of this document:

Applicant means an individual who has applied for employment with the University where the position applied for is one that requires a Working with Children Clearance to be undertaken. An applicant also refers to a current staff member who is required to undergo a Working with Children Clearance because of the changing nature of his or her job or a transfer or promotion to a new position within the University;

Working with Children Clearance means a screening process that checks an individual’s criminal and employment record to ensure there is nothing in that individual’s history which may constitute a serious risk of harm to children such as sexual, violent or drug related offences involving children and malpractice or discipline for inappropriate workplace behaviours; and

Working with Children Clearance Notice means the authorising notice issued as required by law as proof of having passed the Working with Children Clearance screening process.

PROCEDURES

Requirement for a Working with Children Clearance

The University, in accordance with the Charles Darwin University and Union Enterprise Agreement. Working with Children Policy and the Northern Territory Care and Protection of Children Act 2007, requires all current, new and prospective staff members engaged or likely to be engaged in child-related work, to obtain and hold a Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card conducted and administered by SAFE NT prior to engaging in work, either in a paid or voluntary capacity.

To ensure the University is compliant with legislative and professional requirements:

- Senior Managers must ensure the requirement for a Working with Children Clearance is noted on the Request for Recruitment Action and Justification Form under Section 4 – Mandatory Employment Requirements prior the recruitment and selection process for recognised positions;
- The Office of Human Resource Services must notify applicant/s for child-related work positions that a Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card is required during the recruitment and selection process; and

Any governing document once printed is considered an uncontrolled document. Only documents in the University Governing Document Library online are considered to be the most current version.
Successful applicants who are recommended for employment with the University must initiate a Working with Children Clearance if he or she does not hold a valid Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card. An offer of employment will be conditional upon the production and verification of a valid Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card.

An applicant for a position with the University or a current staff member who refuses to undergo a Working with Children Clearance may not be eligible for employment with the University.

Existing Ochre Card Holders

A Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card is transferrable across all categories of child-related work in the Northern Territory, and between paid and volunteer work, however, they are not transferrable between states and territories.

New, current and prospective staff members who already hold a valid Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card must present the originals to the Office of Human Resource Services for verification with SAFE NT. The Staff Orientation Coordinator will make a copy to be kept on the staff member’s personnel file and update the University's database.

Working with Children Clearance Application

New, current and prospective staff members who do not hold a current Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card must apply online. Applicants who do not have access to a computer can complete the Working with Children Clearance application form, and submit it together with a passport sized photo, relevant identification and payment by mail or in person at the following locations:

Note: Applicants should read the instructions in the Guideline for Completing Your Application prior to completing the application for a Working with Children Clearance.

Payment

Application or renewal fees for a Working with Children Clearance must be paid directly to SAFE NT when lodging forms. Staff members may seek reimbursement from the Office of Human Resource Services, in accordance with the Charles Darwin University and Union Enterprise Agreement. A receipt for payment, stating the date of lodgement (which should be prior to the first day of employment) must be submitted the Staff Orientation Coordinator to process a reimbursement.

Temporary Exemption

It is against the law for the University to employ a person in child related employment if the person does not hold a valid Working with Children Clearance Notice. In the event that a new, current or potential staff member's application for Working with Children Clearance is not processed prior to commencing employment, the Office of...
Human Resource Services must request an exemption from the Chief Executive of the Department of Children and Families to ensure the University is not in breach of the legislation. Evidence of application or renewal must be submitted to the Staff Orientation Coordinator, in the form of a receipt from SAFE NT for verification, prior to the commencement of employment or the expiry of an existing staff member's valid Working with Children Clearance Notice.

Working with Children Clearance Notice

If after assessing the application, SAFE NT decides that a person does not pose an unacceptable risk of harm or exploitation to children, a Working with Children Clearance Notice will be sent to the applicant along with the Ochre Card. The Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card will be valid for a two (2) year period, from the date the card is issued.

The applicant/staff member must present the Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre card to the Office of Human Resource Services for verification with SAFE NT. The Staff Orientation Coordinator will make a copy to be kept on the staff member's personnel file and update the University's database.

If SAFE NT refuses to issue a Working with Children Clearance Notice, the person will be advised in writing by registered mail. The applicant/staff member must advise the Director, Office of Human Resource Services as soon as possible and the staff member's employment with the University may be terminated.

Currency

It is a legislative requirement that staff members maintain currency for continued employment in any child-related field with the University. Staff members must advise the Director, Office of Human Resource Services in writing of any relevant change of circumstances. This includes:

- Being charged or convicted of an offence relating to children of a type specified in the Care and Protection of Children Act 2007
- Revocation of Working with Children Clearance Notice; or
- Having conditions imposed on the Working with Children Clearance Notice.

The Director, Human Resource Services will:

- Provide the staff member with an opportunity to discuss any relevant change of circumstance; and
- Engage the staff member elsewhere within the University, if it is appropriate; or
- Terminate the staff member's employment.

Renewals

It is the staff member's responsibility to renew his or her Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card prior to the expiration date. It is against the law to continue to undertake child-related work without a valid Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card.

SAFE NT will send a reminder notice to the Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card holder two (2) months prior to expiry.

Staff members must present the original renewed Ochre Card and Working with Children Clearance Notice to the Office of Human Resource Services for verification with SAFE NT, as soon as it is received. The Staff Orientation Coordinator will make a copy to be kept on the staff member's personnel file and update the University's database.
Where an application for renewal is made prior to expiry but the Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card is not received in time, the staff member must present the SAFE NT receipt to the Office of Human Resource Services. The Staff Orientation Coordinator will then seek a temporary exemption from the Chief Executive of the Department of Children and Families.

Records Management

Working with Children Clearance Notice and Ochre Card records will be stored securely by the Office of Human Resource Services on the individual staff member’s personnel file, and managed in accordance with the University’s Records Management Policy and Procedures and Information Privacy Policy.

Non-Compliance

Non-compliance with this Procedure may result in disciplinary action and/or reference to law enforcement agencies in accordance with the Northern Territory Care and Protection of Children Act 2007 and University Governing Documents.
