

2008 HIGHER EDUCATION FEES QUICK LOOKUP TABLE Commonwealth Supported Students

The figures in this table are based on Units of Studies depending on their Field of Education (FOE) -
(it depends on which units students choose)

Students enrolling in MISC (Miscellaneous Course) will be charged full tuition fees

NZ Citizens and Permanent Residents (non-humanitarian visa holders) residing in Australia whilst undertaking a unit of study within a course will be charged the FULL Band Rate (are not eligible for any HECS-HELP Programs or a discount)

NZ Citizens and Permanent Residents (non-humanitarian visa holders) residing outside Australia whilst undertaking a unit of study within a course will be charged the FULL TUITION Rate (are not eligible for any HECS-HELP Programs or a discount) - as by living overseas they are no longer considered a Commonwealth Supported Student

2008 FEES

Students must meet residency requirements to be considered Commonwealth-supported. Unless students are assessed to be either a Pre-2008, Pre-97 or Pre-2005 student, these fees are applicable to all Commonwealth-supported students commencing an undergraduate course and selected postgraduate by coursework programs in 2008.

pre-2008 FEES

Students who, before 1 January 2008, commenced a course of study as 'contributing' students, are to be treated as pre-2008 HECS students if they have not discontinued their enrolment in the course since that commencement or completed the requirements for the course.

Pre-2008 students retain this student status until 31.1.2012 - after that date their fees will be the same as students commencing a course in 2013.

Students are not taken to have discontinued their enrolment if they have:

- taken a leave of absence with written approval from the University;
- transferred in 2008 into another course of study at the same level (i.e. undergraduate or postgraduate level) with the same provider or another provider;
- enrolled in a cross-institutional programme at a host provider;
- enrolled in an honours course of study in 2008 after having completed the related pass course in 2007;
- or in 2007, undertaken an enabling course as an exempt student and, the following year, enrolled in the course of study to which the enabling course relates as a Commonwealth supported student

pre-2005 FEES (set by Commonwealth)

Students who, before 1 January 2005, commenced a course of study as contributing students, are to be treated as pre-2005 HECS students if they have not discontinued their enrolment in the course since that commencement or completed the requirements for the course.

Pre-2005 students will have to demonstrate that they meet the eligibility criteria for being a pre-2008 student (further information will be made available to students prior to 31.12.2008)

Students are not taken to have discontinued their enrolment if they have:

- taken a leave of absence with written approval from the University;
- transferred into another course of study at the same level (i.e. undergraduate or postgraduate level) with the same provider or another provider;
- enrolled in a cross-institutional programme at a host provider;
- enrolled in an honours course of study after having completed the related pass course;
- in 2004, undertaken an enabling course as an exempt student and, the following year, enrolled in the course of study to which the enabling course relates as a Commonwealth supported student; or
- enrolled in a course of study after completing the requirements of a 'qualifying or preliminary' course of study at the same level (i.e. undergraduate or postgraduate level). This provision only applies to students who commenced their 'qualifying or preliminary' course of study after 1996.
