

KFive Indigenous Scholarship

KFive has established, through Charles Darwin University Foundation, the KFive Indigenous Scholarship to encourage student participation at Charles Darwin University (CDU) and in the Territory workforce, particularly those of Australian Indigenous and Torres Strait Islander descent.

KFive recognises the importance of supporting Australian Indigenous and Torres Strait Islander people and encouraging education for people who may not otherwise have an opportunity without financial support.

The amount of the scholarship is $1,000, which will be paid shortly after Semester 1, 2010 Census date, subject to confirmation of fulltime enrolment.

Eligibility

The successful applicant will:

- be enrolled or intending to enrol fulltime in a VET Course at Charles Darwin University;
- be of Australian Indigenous or Torres Strait Islander descent; and
- reside in the Northern Territory, and
- be assessed on the basis of academic merit, personal qualities and reasons for undertaking the proposed study.

For details of the General Conditions of Award, including eligibility and application requirements, please see Scholarships – General Conditions of Award, located on the scholarships website.

Applications can be downloaded from the scholarships website at www.cdu.edu.au/scholarships or collected from the Information Centres on Casuarina and Alice Springs Campuses.

Please send your completed application form with your response to the above selection criteria (including written evidence/confirmations) to:
