Welcome to all new international students

We would like to extend a warm welcome to all of our commencing international students. We hope that your first weeks at CDU are eventful and you enjoy the various activities we have organised. The international student orientation occurs from 27th February to 1st March and will be a fun event. Read more

NEW international student website

We are proud to announce the launch of a new website for current international students. It provides relevant information about your student visa, requesting CoE extensions and events. You can also find links to other relevant services, so make sure this website is the FIRST place you visit for information. Read more

Changes to CoE extensions

Do you think you might need to extend your CoE? Well, be aware that there have been changes to the process of requesting a CoE. Please make sure you review our website to ensure you are up to date on these changes. Read more

Facebook page for international students

Did you know that there is a Facebook page specifically for international students @ CDU? We have over 1300 fans and you could be one of them! If you haven’t already ‘liked’ this page then you better hurry up as we post relevant information, interesting events and plan on having competitions throughout the year! Read more

Full time study load

Do you know that international students need to study a full time load? All HE international students are required to study 40 credit points per semester and VET students a minimum of 360 hours. Can’t study a full time load? Then you will have to apply for approval from the SISA. Read more
