

CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing)

DESCRIPTION

This qualification reflects the role of workers in the community and/or residential setting who follow an individualised plan to provide person-centred support to people who may require support due to ageing, disability or some other reason. Work involves using discretion and judgement in relation to individual support as well as taking responsibility for own outputs. Workers have a range of factual, technical and procedural knowledge, as well as some theoretical knowledge of the concepts and practices required to provide person-centred support.

ELIGIBILITY/ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

There are no mandatory entry requirements for this qualification. However, applicants who wish to commence this course need to have the required skills and knowledge to undertake the qualification at this level; e.g. completion of Year 10 or equivalent, and a general command of spoken and written English, to be able to meet industry standards for communication.

To be eligible to gain a placement in a community services, aged care or disability care facility, students may be required to attain an Ochre Card to work with children or a police clearance. If you have not yet obtained an Ochre card, please contact SAFENT:

ASSESSMENT

Assessments vary with each unit. You will be provided with an assessment guide.

Work placement

For candidates not already employed in the sector, work placement of at least 120 hours will be required in order to meet the evidence requirements of many of the units. Candidates will be issued with a placement logbook to record activities and evidence gathered.

During the CoVID 19 pandemic if work placement is able to go ahead the students will follow Australian Government advice regarding social distancing, personal hygiene, and when and how to isolate during the COVID-19 pandemic. If voluntary placement is unable to be taken at this time it may be deferred.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

Students can apply for RPL during pre-enrolment or after enrolment. Students are provided with an RPL Self-Assessment before application and followed through with and an initial interview with an assessor.

RESOURCES

Students are issued with learning materials and handouts relevant to each unit.

STUDY AND CAREER PATHWAYS

Further training pathways from CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing) include, but are not limited to, CHC42015 Certificate IV in Community Services.

The role of Aged Services workers is to support older people, either in residential, home or community-based environments. These workers complete specialised tasks and functions and take responsibility for their own outputs with defined organisation guidelines. Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and maintain quality service delivery through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery.
