SIT50422 Diploma of Hospitality Management

DESCRIPTION

This qualification provides the skills and knowledge for a person to be competent in skilled operations, and team leading or supervision. Work is undertaken in various hospitality settings such as restaurants, hotels, motels, clubs, pubs, cafes and coffee shops. The qualification is suitable for an apprenticeship pathway. Studies can be undertaken either on campus or externally at the workplace, with exception of some units which require face to face training.

The program is designed to give students flexible training options. There is a combination of on-campus and work experience training. On-campus training includes a range of practical activities in a simulated work environment

This qualification is available to international students (CRICOS Course No. 112161G). Please refer to VET International for the course and fee information.

ELIGIBILITY/ENTRY REQUIREMENTS
