ASSESSMENT

Skills and knowledge assessments are an essential step in progressing through your course. You may be assessed in a number of ways including written assessment, questioning, portfolios, work samples, direct observation, practical assessments and third-party feedback.

Throughout your course you will receive information about assessments including how, when and where assessments will be conducted.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

RPL is a process that determines whether the skills, knowledge and experience you've gained through your previous study, work or life experience can count towards a vocational training qualification at CDU. For more information, VET RPL.

CREDIT TRANSFER (CT)

Charles Darwin University as a Registered Training Organisation recognises the Australian Qualifications Framework qualifications and Statement of Attainments issued by any other Australian Registered Training Organisation (RTO).

Students are encouraged to submit any requests for credit from previous studies at the time of enrolment, to ensure they are not enrolling in units they may not need to undertake.

RESOURCES

Students are required to provide their own laptops and will be given access to the units on the Energy Space Learner Management System to complete theory components. Students are required to access the Australian Standards electrical regulations as part of their course requirements.

For the course 11297NAT, it is a requirement to obtain the appropriate and current Australian Standards (as listed below):

- AS/NZS 3000:2018 Electrical Installations “Wiring Rules”
- AS/NZS 3008:1.1.2017 Electrical Installations – Selection of Cables Part 1.1
- AS/NZS 3017:2022 Electrical Installations – Verification by Inspection and Testing

This can be obtained online or by arrangement with CDU. These textbooks provide the underpinning knowledge required for the units of competency. This course will also require access to the internet and a suitable device.
