

CUA41320 Certificate IV in Visual Arts

Casuarina

DESCRIPTION

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who are beginning to develop their own artistic voice and command of techniques in a range of art forms.

It applies to work in different visual arts, craft and design work environments.

Practice at this level is underpinned by the application of broad and integrated technical and theoretical knowledge and the ability to analyse and use information from a range of sources. Individuals at this level usually operate autonomously; however, they may provide some leadership and guidance to others with limited responsibility for the output of others.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this qualification at the time of publication.

ELIGIBILITY/ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

A Language, Literacy, Numeracy and Digital Literacy (LLND) evaluation helps identify any areas where you may need additional support to help you achieve your goals.

ASSESSMENT

Skills and knowledge assessments are an essential step in progressing through your course. You may be assessed in a number of ways, including written assessment, questioning, portfolios, work samples, direct observation, practical assessments and third-party feedback.

Throughout your course, you will receive information about assessments, including how, when and where assessments will be conducted.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

RPL is a process that determines whether the skills, knowledge and experience you've gained through your previous study, work or life experience can count towards a vocational training qualification at CDU. For more information, visit the VET RPL.

CREDIT TRANSFER (CT)

Charles Darwin University, as a Registered Training Organisation, recognises the Australian Qualifications Framework qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by any other Australian Registered Training Organisation (RTO).

Students are encouraged to submit any requests for credit from previous studies at the time of enrolment, to ensure they are not enrolling in units they may not need to undertake.

RESOURCES

Students will have 24/7 access to assessments and learning resources on Learnline, CDU's online learning platform. Before you can start using Learnline, you'll need to make sure that your computer has the correct setup. For more details: Learnline | Charles Darwin University.

Computer and internet access is required to source information and complete assessments. It is recommended that students bring a laptop with them to class so they can access online resources.

Students are issued learning materials and handouts for each unit.
