Thesis Title:

Authenticity Statement
I certify that this is a direct electronic equivalent of the copy of my thesis approved by the University for the award of the degree. No emendation of content has occurred, and if there are any minor variations in formatting, they are the result of the conversion to Adobe Acrobat format.

Restriction Statement
It is expected that most theses accepted for an award will be made available for consultation by the wider community. They may be instances where all or part of a thesis contains cultural or confidential information. In such cases a moratorium may be place on access. To request an embargo on access to the University copy of your thesis, you will need to apply to the Dean of Graduate Studies. Please contact ORI if you need to request an embargo.	Please indicate if you have had an embargo approved by the Dean of Graduate Studies:
	No
	Yes – approved for 12 months
	Yes – approved for 24 months

Copyright Statement
Charles Darwin University or its agents has/have the right to archive and to make available this thesis in whole or in part in all forms of media. I retain copyright and all proprietary rights, such as patent rights. I also retain the right to use in future works (such as articles or books) all or part of this thesis. I have cleared all the third-party copyright material with the owner (permission for material used in the thesis that is not your own).
