

Social media success for researchers

Social media is a feature of academic life and a gateway towards research impact. Researchers need to be equipped to take advantage of the opportunities that social media brings.

Join Katrina Britnell (Northern Institute) and Kylie McMartin (CDU Library) for a session to develop skills and understanding to manage social media around your research.

Monday 17 May | 10:00am-12:00pm | via Zoom

This session should cover what you want to know, so please take 2 minutes to complete the pre-session survey: https://cdu.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_1XEWn6LYZR6Poy2

Registration essential: <https://libcal.cdu.edu.au/event/5305522>

Who should attend: PhD and HDR students, Early Career Researchers, Research Project Administrators