

Costs

Casual Fee

For students registered with the Charles Darwin University table tennis club, on Friday between 5:00pm to 7:00pm at the Marrara Table Tennis Hall, two tables are available for use FREE of CHARGE.

For those interested in playing on an alternative night, the casual fee for any Monday between 7:00pm to 9:00pm is $5.

Registration

If you are very keen in playing competition at the table tennis venue in Marrara, in order to play in any of the three grade competition nights you must be a registered player. The registration fee is $90 before the end of June. Costs $60 if you register in the second half of the year.

The registration fee covers insurance for those who are registered with the club, as well as the capitation fees for our affiliation with Table Tennis Northern Territory (TTNT) and Table Tennis Australia (TTA).

If you decide to pay the annual registration fee to DTTA, you can play at any session times free of charge (non-club competition nights) at the Darwin Table Tennis Hall.

Equipment Hire

What if I just want to have a hit with mates at another time? Can we hire a table tennis table and related equipment?

The tables and equipment are available for hire at times which do not interfere with scheduled CDU activities. Prices are available on application.

What happens on Wednesdays 12 pm to 1 pm?

On Wednesdays CDU Table Tennis club organises practice sessions during lunch times at Basketball

Court. This continues during teaching weeks in semester 1 and 2.

Sometimes, depending upon number of regular players available we also organise competitions with prizes for runners-up and winner teams.

If you are keen and take part in club's volunteering activities, we may sponsor your registration and other costs for playing as CDU team/s in DTTA competitions for different grades.

What happens on Fridays 5 pm?

Anybody, and in particular CDU Students, are welcome to attend on Friday training, practice and social play. Cost is $5 if you are not DTTA registered. Full time students and if you are registered with the Charles Darwin University Table Tennis Club the practice is FREE.

What happens on other days?

If you are playing for a CDU Table Tennis Team you may take part in (depending upon your skills):

On Wednesday evenings (7:00 pm – 9:30 pm) when A Grade team events are held.

On Thursday evenings (7:00 pm – 9:30 pm) when B Grade team events are held.

On Tuesday evenings (7:00 pm – 9:30 pm) when C-Grade events are held.

What happens on Saturdays?

Elite Junior Training squads are held at specific times of the year. When they take place (at the Darwin Table Tennis Hall), the venue is open and there is usually tables available for training, practice and social play. Check with the convenor for dates and times. If you are a member of the CDU team, you may take part in these but you might have to pay required fees.

Anybody, and in particular CDU Students, are welcome to attend on Friday training, practice and social play. Cost is $5 if you
