 - g. where a Scholarship is applied to courses as part of a package offer, if the Scholarship is discontinued for one course within the package of courses, the Scholarship will remain discontinued thenceforth and will not be applied to any further courses outlined in the package offer.
- 12. As per the refund policy, refund amounts payable to international students may be adjusted to include the recouping of waived published fees such as the repayment of any CDU Global Merit Scholarships in accordance with the terms and conditions of those scholarships.
- 13. If an international student cancels their studies at CDU prior to the completion of their studies as per their Letter of Offer and the Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) and/or transfers to a different Education Provider, the international student is liable to repay the CDU Global Merit Scholarship equivalent fees for each term that was attempted.
- 14. Fees owing by the scholarship recipient to the University may be deducted from any refund that is payable by the University or an invoice for the amount of Scholarship deducted for each relevant term prior to the request for cancellation will be sent to the student for payment.
- 15. The University may terminate the CDU Global Merit Scholarship where the recipient:
 - a. fails to fulfill the ongoing eligibility criteria; or
 - b. breaches the terms and conditions of the Scholarship/Letter of Offer/CoE; or
 - c. is found by the University to have breached the Code of Conduct – Students and other CDU policies.
- 16. Failure to adhere to the Scholarship conditions will result in the cancellation of the Scholarship. Applicants no longer eligible for the Scholarship will be notified. Applicants can appeal the cancellation via the complaints and appeal process of the University.

These terms and conditions may be changed by CDU at any time and the University will provide written notice to all current CDU Global Merit Scholarship recipients.

Students who are uncertain about any of the terms and conditions are encouraged to write to CDU Global: international@cdu.edu.au
