

CDU Global Merit Scholarship 2022-2023

The CDU Global Merit Scholarship is available to new international VET, Undergraduate, Postgraduate (Course work), and Higher Degree by Research students who meet the academic criteria at Charles Darwin University (CDU), Australia.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All CDU Global Merit Scholarship recipients are governed by these terms and conditions.

1. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship is awarded at the discretion of the University to international students, undertaking on-campus, full-time degree study at CDU.
2. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship is only available to students applying for VET, Undergraduate, Postgraduate (Course work), and Higher Degree by Research courses.
3. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship is only available to commencing students at CDU, studying their first program at CDU, and not for returning students.
4. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship is not available to students who are studying at CDU and applying for a Change of Course.
5. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship is not available with any other CDU scholarship.
6. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship is not transferable to a third party, redeemable for cash or creditable to a future study period.
7. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship is for the duration of the course.
8. The student is required to notify the CDU Global office if there are any changes to their enrolment.
9. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship remains valid whilst the recipient:
  - a. remains enrolled in full-time study; and
  - b. remains enrolled in the course listed on their Letter of Offer; and
  - c. pays all tuition and additional fees/costs in accordance with CDU policy (ensuring that tuition fees are paid in full by the census date of each term); and
  - d. meets the conditions of their student visa.
10. The CDU Global Merit Scholarship will discontinue if the student named on the Letter of Offer:
  - a. has overdue tuition fees and/or outstanding debts after the census date of each semester; or
  - b. graduates from their nominated course; or
  - c. cancels their enrolment, or has their enrolment cancelled at CDU; or
  - d. has been awarded another scholarship.
11. As per the refund policy, refund amounts payable to international students may be adjusted to include the recouping of waived published fees such as the repayment of any CDU Global Merit Scholarships in accordance with the terms and conditions of those scholarships.
12. If an international student cancels their studies at CDU prior to the completion of their studies as per their Letter of Offer and the Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) and/or transfers to a different Education Provider, the international student is liable to repay the CDU Global Merit Scholarship equivalent fees for each term that was completed.
13. Fees owing by the scholarship recipient may be deducted from any refund that is payable by the University or an invoice for the amount of Scholarship deducted for each relevant term prior to the request for cancellation will be sent to the student for payment.
14. The University may terminate the CDU Global Merit Scholarship where the recipient:
  - a. fails to fulfill the current eligibility criteria,

- b. breaches the terms and conditions of the scholarship, or
  - c. is found by the University to have breached the Code of Conduct - Students.
15. Prior to any decision to terminate a scholarship, the University will inform the recipient of the proposal to consider termination and invite them to make a submission on the matter. The University will inform the recipient of the outcome and provide reasons in writing. Following the University's review of the submission, CDU will make its decision on termination which shall be final.

These terms and conditions may be changed by CDU at any time and the University will provide written notice to all current CDU Global Merit Scholarship recipients.

Students who are uncertain about any of the terms and conditions are encouraged to write to CDU Global: international@cdu.edu.au
