

Intercultural Mediation (5 day) Intensive Course

IAS539 INT 6/IAS402 INT 6

The Community Justice Centre (CJC) in partnership with Mawul Rom Peacemaking Indigenous Corporation and the Faculty of Arts and Society (CDU) is pleased to offer this 5-day intensive course that provides participants with the knowledge and skills to become a mediator under the National Mediator Accreditation Standards (NMAS).

This introductory course provides you with a theoretical framework, skills, tools and practice for facilitative mediation, through an intercultural lens.

The course is 38 hours and is participatory and immersive. The trainers are highly experienced mediators with extensive experience in the NT. You will learn through real life scenarios and through personalised coaching and feedback.

Completing this foundation training is the first step in the national mediator accreditation process. You are able to credit this course towards your postgraduate or undergraduate degree at CDU.

WHEN: Monday 13 Nov – Friday 17 Nov 2023
8.30am – 5.00pm

WHERE: Beagle Deck – CDU Library (Red 8-Level 3)
Charles Darwin University Casuarina Campus,
Darwin, Northern Territory

COST: Workshop Participants - $2,750 incl GST
CDU Students & Cross-Institutional
Enrolments - tuition and student amenity fee

This course is recommended for anyone interested in increasing their skills in communication and managing conflict. It will be particularly useful for people working in intercultural contexts, particularly First Nations communities.

MORE INFORMATION

Call the Community Justice Centre – 1800 000 473
or email cjc@nt.gov.au

CDU STUDENT and ADMINISTRATIVE QUERIES

Call Lee Harrop – 08 8946 7292 or email
intensives@cdu.edu.au

REGISTRATION

<https://webpay.cdu.edu.au/IM13112023>

TESTIMONIALS FROM PREVIOUS PARTICIPANTS:

- ▷ An enriching, thought-provoking workshop that everyone should take so we can all be peacemakers in all aspects of life.
- ▷ The intercultural element is integral to working in the NT and Australia.
- ▷ The training was amazing. I learnt skills which will be useful not only for mediation but for life in general.
- ▷ A full week of both intellectual and experiential learning.
- ▷ A privilege to learn about different knowledge systems and have the opportunity to reflect on how they integrate, align and differ.
- ▷ A life changing experience in understanding the depth of cultural experience that frames our lives.
- ▷ Both the Yolngu leaders sharing their insights but also the role-playing brings a new dimension to understanding the stories behind the conflicts that can arise.