

FACULTY OF HEALTH

Celebrating our Partnerships in Health Education!

STUDENT NOMINATED AWARDS

Is there a person who has made a difference in your learning journey?

Faculty of Health Student
Nominated Awards

Let's celebrate our partner organisations' contribution to excellence in our health student education. Please nominate in the following categories using the QR code and be in the draw to win a 3 month gym membership at the Faculty of Health Fitness Hub.

CLINICAL SUPERVISOR OF THE YEAR

An individual from a partnership organisation who positively influences your work and builds confidence in your preparedness for the industry.

INNOVATOR OF THE YEAR

An individual from a partnership organisation that excites you with their innovative ideas, systems or teaching, that made your learning a positive and meaningful experience.

TEAM OF THE YEAR

Any team from a partnership organisation that has been exceptionally helpful, friendly and supportive to your needs.

LECTURER OF THE YEAR

A lecturer who demonstrates dedication to their role, who is passionate about teaching and engages you to learn actively.

WHO CAN BE NOMINATED?

- Someone who has supported you in your learning in the last 12 months
- Partnership organisations and Faculty of Health staff are eligible to be nominated.

Nominations close 5pm, Monday 20 November 2023

Visit for more information
cdu.edu.au/health

foh@cdu.edu.au

FACULTY OF HEALTH

STUDENT NOMINATED AWARDS

Give a shoutout to the game-changer in your learning journey!

Nominations open now!

OUR AWARDS

The Faculty of Health Student Nominated Awards will celebrate the outstanding individual and teams that make a real difference in the lives of our students.

LECTURER OF THE YEAR

Nominate a lecturer who's a force to be reckoned with. They thrive on sharing their knowledge and igniting that spark in you to join in the learning adventure.

TEAM OF THE YEAR

Shoutout to the team that's been your personal superheroes, going above and beyond to make your student life a breeze!

INNOVATOR OF THE YEAR

Who is the person whose genius ideas, mind-blowing systems, or inspiring teaching style lit up your world and made learning a joyride.

CLINICAL SUPERVISOR OF THE YEAR

Name that one person who ignites a fire within you and fuels your professional prowess, boosting your confidence to conquer the industry.

WHO CAN BE NOMINATED?

- Someone who has supported you in your learning in the last 12 months
- Both CDU staff and external organisation staff are eligible to be nominated.

NOMINATIONS CLOSE MONDAY 20TH NOVEMBER 2023

Visit for more information
cdu.edu.au/health

foh@cdu.edu.au

The Faculty of Health will award their Student Nominated Awards at the Faculty's End of Year function on the 30th of November to celebrate our partner organisations' contribution to excellence in our student industry education.

CDU work with numerous organisations across the Northern Territory and Australia that support our students' learning experience. These awards acknowledge the individuals and teams that provide this valuable support.

Celebrating Excellence in Student Industry Education

On November 30, the Faculty of Health will present their Student Nominated Awards at the annual End of Year function. These awards will recognize the contributions of our partner organizations towards the advancement of student industry education. CDU collaborates with several organizations across the Northern Territory and Australia to enhance students' learning experiences. The awards will highlight the efforts of individuals and teams who provide valuable support to our students.

On November 30, the Faculty of Health will present their Student Nominated Awards at the annual End of Year function. These awards celebrate our partner organisations' contribution to excellence in our student industry education.

Charles Darwin University partners with numerous organisations across the Northern Territory and Australia to support our students' learning experience. These awards acknowledge the individuals and teams that provide this valuable support.

The Faculty of Health aims to acknowledge and celebrate exceptional individuals and teams who have significantly supported our health students' learning and development. The efforts of many individuals are instrumental in shaping the minds and futures of young health professionals. Their efforts to inspire, motivate, and support our students are commendable, and they merit recognition for their dedication.

The Faculty of Health Student Nominated Awards will celebrate the outstanding individuals and teams that make a real difference in the lives of our students. Students nominate these awards and recognise the roles individuals/teams have played in a variety of categories, including:

An ideal candidate for teaching, learning, or student support should possess a genuine passion for their work and a desire to create a positive and enriching experience for their students. They should be engaging and strive to ensure your learning experience is both fulfilling and enjoyable. They should be invested in your success and provide you the necessary support to achieve your full potential.

In making a nomination, please visit the [university website TBC] and complete the online form. Be sure to briefly explain why you are nominating them and how they have made a difference in your education. You can use the link multiple times to nominate more than one person. Nominations close on the 20th of November 2023.

Please provide a list of individuals or teams who have supported you in the previous 12 months. This may comprise lecturers, administrators, clinical supervisors, and other staff members that have contributed to your education journey. These individuals may be affiliated with CDU or an external organization.

Nominees may be individuals or teams who have supported you in the last 12 months. Examples may include lecturers, administrators, clinical supervisors, and other staff members who have played a role in your educational journey. These individuals could be affiliated with CDU or an external organisation.

If you are a student and would like to make a nomination, please click the button below and complete the online form. Please briefly explain why you nominate them and how they've positively impacted your education.

If you are not a student and would like further information on how your organisation can become more involved, please email us at

Partnering up with our academics, we are grateful for our external partners who are an integral part of offering industry and professional knowledge and guidance.

Collaborating with our academic partners is just the beginning - we also have a network of external partners who provide vital industry knowledge and guidance.

Collaborating with our academic affiliates, we also benefit from the tutelage of external partners who offer diverse industry insights and guidance.

Our collaboration with academic partners serves as a launching point, as we also maintain a network of external partners who offer valuable industry insights and guidance.

We appreciate the collaboration with our academic team and acknowledge the crucial role played by our external partners in providing industry-specific insights and professional guidance.