We know that education changes lives and this occurs through the delivery of The Greek Guardians program.

Thank you, George, for leading such an industrious and exciting program for over 20 years.

The team at Community Connection look forward to working with you in 2024 to advance our achievements and to continue to create successful and meaningful student experiences.

MESSAGE

Happy 20th Anniversary to Greek and Hellenic Studies at CDU

I start with Thank you!!!

For believing in our vision, your trust, your support, showing confidence and importantly your investment in, supporting the CDU's Greek Language and Hellenic Studies program and the Guardians of the Greek Language and Culture at CDU.

I am truly grateful for the wonderful people that are a part of this amazing journey called the Greek Language and Culture Program and Hellenic Studies at CDU. Enriched further by the productive synergy between CDU and our sister Universities, the University of the Aegean and the University of Macedonia. Lead by our most inspiring and ever hard-working Professor George Frazis we can be proud of incredible achievements and an exciting vision for the next 5 years. If you have had a chance to read the program's new brochure flaunting our program I am sure you will agree we have come a long way. If you haven't please go on line and have a look it also has some great photos we wanted to share with you and some moving testimonials from our students.

2023 has been a full year on all aspects of the program including the return following the pandemic shut down, of the program's unique In Country Study program in July. Another example of an outstanding student experience only possible because you support it. Thank you again.

In yet another exciting initiative of CDU this year the Greek and Hellenic Studies program at CDU has delivered an inaugural Digital Badge (short course) provided for the professional development of Greek Language teachers in Australia, having attracted enrolments in SA, WA, NSW and of course our very own Greek Language teachers in the NT. Congratulations to all teachers and I especially acknowledge our Darwin Greek Orthodox Greek School teachers. Well done to all!!

Early 2024 we look forward to the next inaugural Digital Badge delivered by Professor George Frazis providing a Greek Language and Culture short course exclusively designed for workers in the aged care, health and allied health fields, on top of a full agenda also featuring the fourth consecutive biannual International Conference on the Perspectives of the Hellenic Diaspora starting in May, followed by the In country Study Program in July and it just keeps going.

It is very exciting that we are able to share such wonderful outcomes as a result of this program at CDU, our sister Universities (Aegean & Macedonia) and I really look forward to being in touch again next year as we work towards reaching more great outcomes outlined in our vision statement. However this is about saying thank you and acknowledging everyone, including the staff behind the program at CDU, all the students and yourselves and wishing you a safe and blessed Christmas and may the spirit of this season spread joy, peace and good will to all. ΕΛΛΗΝΙΚΗ ΛΟΓΟΤΕΧΝΙΑ

Εις τα περίχωρα της Αντιοχείας, Κ. Καβάφη

Σαστίσαμε στην Αντιόχειαν όταν μάθαμε τα νέα καμώματα του Ιουλιανού.

Ο Απόλλων εξηγήθηκε με λόγου του, στην Δάφνη!
Χρησμό δεν ήθελε να δώσει (σκοτισθήκαμε!),
σκοπό δεν τόχε να μιλήσει μαντικώς, αν πρώτα
δεν καθαρίζονταν το εν Δάφνη τέμενός του.
Τον ενοχλούσαν, δήλωσεν, οι γειτονεύοντες νεκροί.

Στην Δάφνη βρίσκονταν τάφοι πολλοί.—
Ένας απ' τους εκεί ενταφιασμένους
ήταν ο θαυμαστός, της εκκλησίας μας δόξα, ο άγιος, ο καλλίνικος μάρτυς Βαβύλας.

Αυτόν αινίττονταν, αυτόν φοβούνταν ο ψευτοθεός.
Όσο τον ένοιωθε κοντά δεν κόταε
να βγάλει τους χρησμούς του· τσιμουδιά.
(Τους τρέμουνε τους μάρτυράς μας οι ψευτοθεοί.)

Ανασκουμπώθηκεν ο ανόσιος Ιουλιανός, νεύριασε και ξεφώνιζε: «Σηκώστε, μεταφέрте τον, βγάλτε τον τούτον τον Βαβύλα αμέσως.
Ακούς εκεί; Ο Απόλλων ενοχλείται.
Σηκώστε τον, αρπάξτε τον ευθύς.
Ξεθάψτε τον, πάρτε τον όπου θέτε.
Βγάλτε τον, διώξτε τον. Παίζουμε τώρα;
Ο Απόλλων είπε να καθαρισθεί το τέμενος.»

Το πήραμε, το πήγαμε το άγιο λείψανον αλλού·
το πήραμε, το πήγαμε εν αγάπη κ' εν τιμή.

Κι ωραία τwόντι πρόκοψε το τέμενος.
Δεν άργησε καθόλου, και φωτιά
μεγάλη κόρωσε: μια φοβερή φωτιά:
και κάηκε και το τέμενος κι ο Απόλλων.

Στάχτη το είδωλο· για σάρωμα, με τα σκουπίδια.

Έσκασε ο Ιουλιανός και διέδοσε—τι άλλο θα έκαμνε— πως η φωτιά ήταν βαλτή από τους Χριστιανούς εμάς. Ας πάει να λείει.
Δεν αποδείχθηκε· ας πάει να λείει.
Το ουσιώδες είναι που έσκασε.

FROM OUR LITERATURE

On the Outskirts of Antioch, C. Cavafi

We in Antioch were astonished when we heard what Julian was up to now.

Apollo had made things clear to him at Daphni:
he didn't want to give an oracle (as though we cared!),
he didn't intend to speak prophetically, unless his temple at Daphni was purified first.
The nearby dead, he declared, got on his nerves.

There are many tombs at Daphni.
One of those buried there was the triumphant and holy martyr Vavylas, wonder and glory of our church.

It was him the false god hinted at, him he feared.
As long as he felt him near he didn't dare pronounce his oracle: not a murmur.
(The false gods are terrified of our martyrs.)

Unholy Julian got worked up,
lost his temper and shouted: "Raise him, carry him out,
take him away immediately, this Vavylas.
You there, do you hear? He gets on Apollo's nerves.
Grab him, raise him at once,
dig him out, take him away, throw him out,
take him wherever you want. This isn't a joke.
Apollo said the temple has to be purified."

We took it, the holy relic, and carried it elsewhere.
We took it, we carried it away in love and in honor.

And hasn't the temple done brilliantly since!
In no time at all a colossal fire
broke out, a terrible fire,
and both the temple and Apollo burned to nothing.

Ashes the idol: dirt to be swept away. J ulian exploded, and he spread it around—what else could he do?—that we, the Christians, had set the fire. Let him say so.

It hasn't been proved. Let him say so.
The essential thing is—he exploded.
