Students undertaking placements in these settings must meet the mandatory requirements, including immunisations, health screenings, security checks, and training modules. As some requirements can take several months, students should begin the process as soon as they enrol. Students are responsible for the costs associated with becoming compliant, and, depending on their immune status, these costs could reach $800. For additional information, please see the Faculty of Health website https://www.cdu.edu.au/health/student-experience/placements-work-integrated-learning | $2,000 $800 |
