CDU Official Welcome Day

What to expect at Danala Campus?

54 Cavenagh Street, Level 1, Darwin City, NT, 0800, Australia

If I have any accessibility questions or requirements, I can email: studentlife@cdu.edu.au

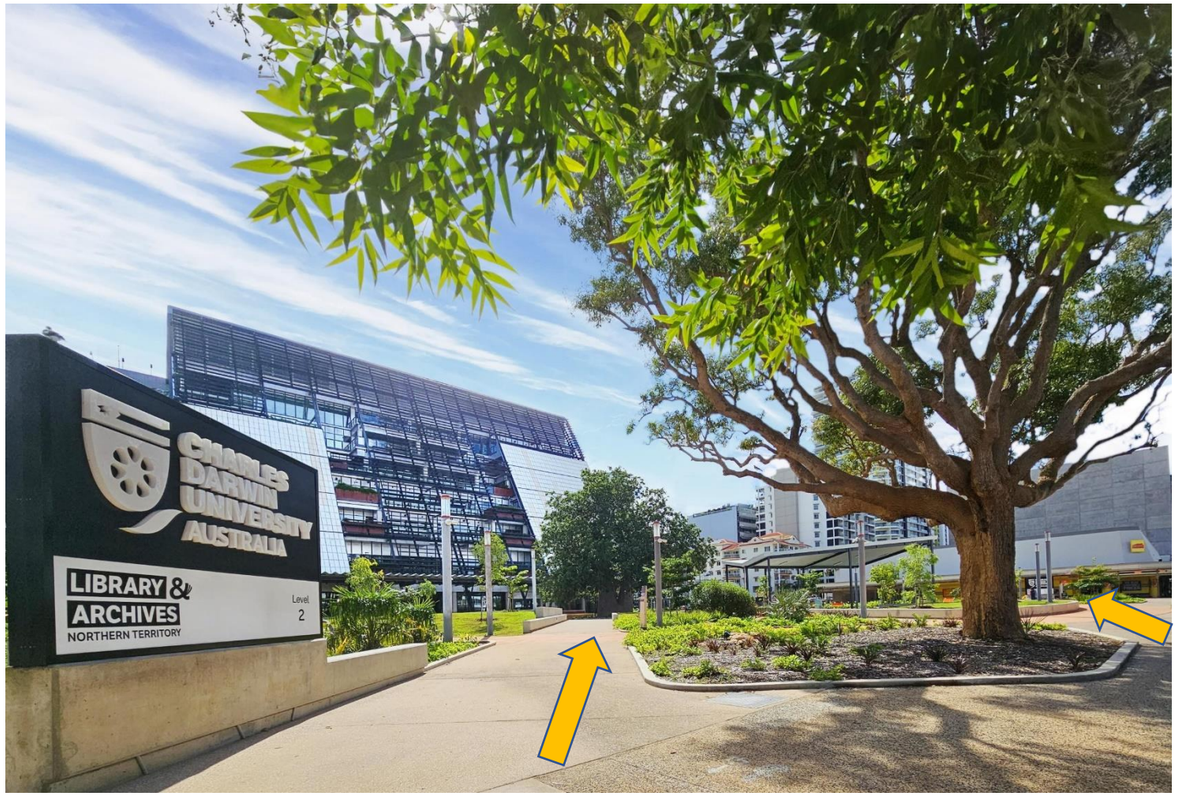

Orientation Week

CDU orientation week, program sheet detailing each event

- Orientation Week runs from 11 Nov to 13 Nov across Danala campus.
- I can learn about my faculty and the CDU services available to me. There may be different activities I can watch or join.
- I can ask questions and take a break when I need to.
- If I need help, I can ask a CDU staff member. Staff members will wear a CDU lanyard with their ID or a CDU shirt.

Arriving at Danala

An image of the pathway leading to CDU Danala Campus.

- I can travel to Danala by bus or car. Underground parking is available on campus from wood street, with a lift that takes me to Level 1 up to Level 5.
- If I walk to the building, I can follow the pathway to the entrance doors. These lead into the Level 1 foyer, where my Orientation journey begins.

At the Orientation Welcome Desk

Two CDU team members stand behind a welcome table with welcome packs.

Yellow arrows point to the Orientation Welcome Desks on either side of the foyer.

Two CDU team members stand behind a welcome table with welcome packs.

- I will go to the Orientation Welcome Desk.
- A friendly CDU staff member will greet me.
- I will receive a welcome pack, lanyard and drink voucher, CDU staff will briefly explain what I have been given.

Getting My Faculty Sticker and Scanning the QR Code for check-in

A yellow arrow shows the way to the next Orientation desk, just beyond the welcome table.

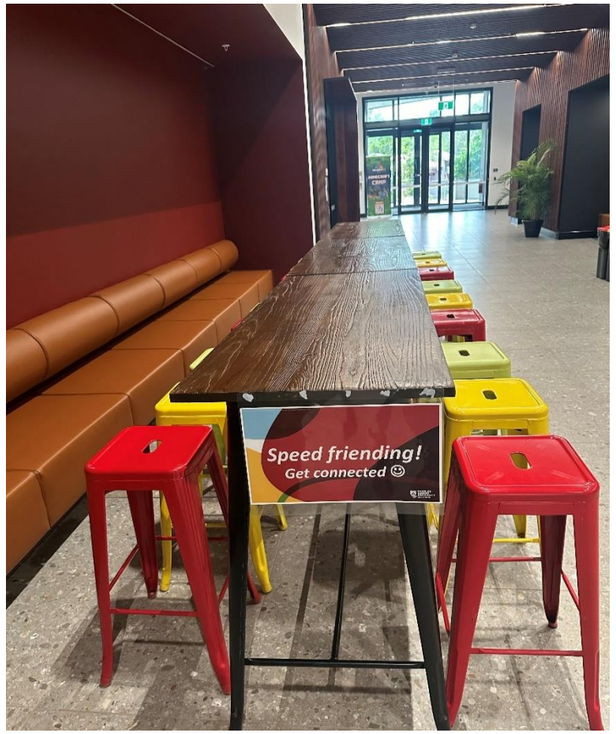

At the desk, I will get my faculty sticker and scan the QR code for compulsory attendance.

A CDU team member stands behind a table displaying wrapped gift hampers.

- Next, I will move to the Faculty desk.
- At this Desk, I will get a faculty sticker that shows which faculty I belong to.
- I will scan the QR code to mark my attendance, and this will automatically enter me into the lucky draw for a chance to win a gift hamper.

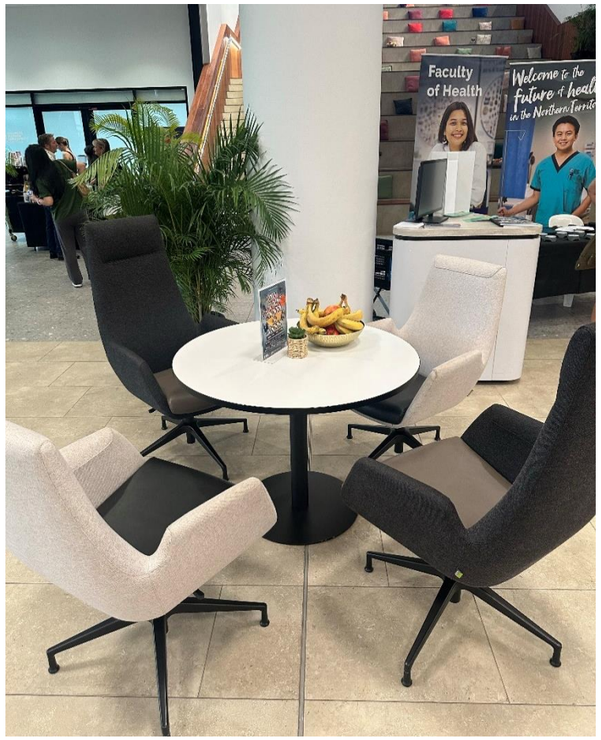

Speed Friending and Games

A long table with colourful stools and a “Speed friending” sign is set up beside cushioned seating.

There may be activities like speed friending, games and shared spaces where I can meet and connect with other students.

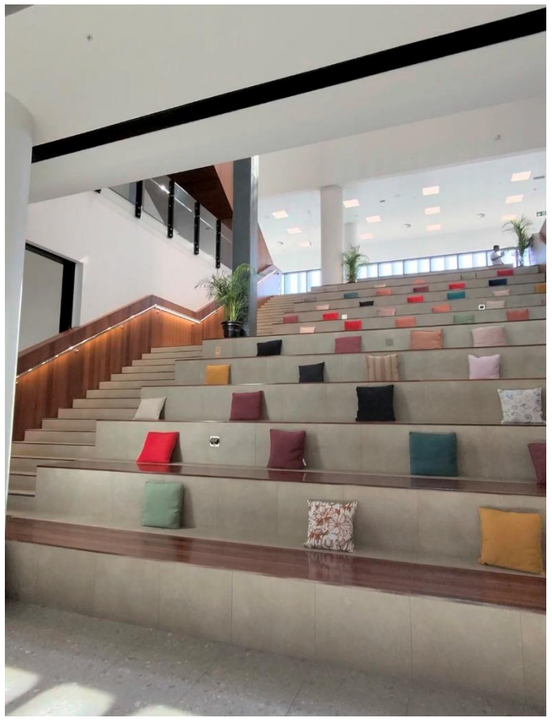

Chairs surround a round white table near the stairs.

- After checking in, I can explore speed friending, games and shared activities in the Level 1 foyer.
- I can meet other students, join in or watch at my own pace.
- The DJ will play music that may be loud, and I may hear announcements during the day.
- If I need a break, I can visit the Dalmugurra Safe and Sensory Space on Level 2, Room 2.15. I can return to the activities when I feel ready.

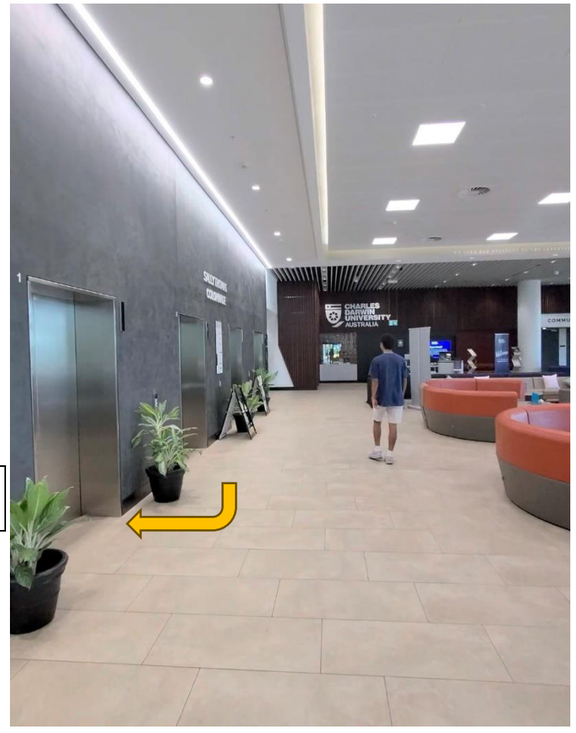

Getting Around Danala

stairs

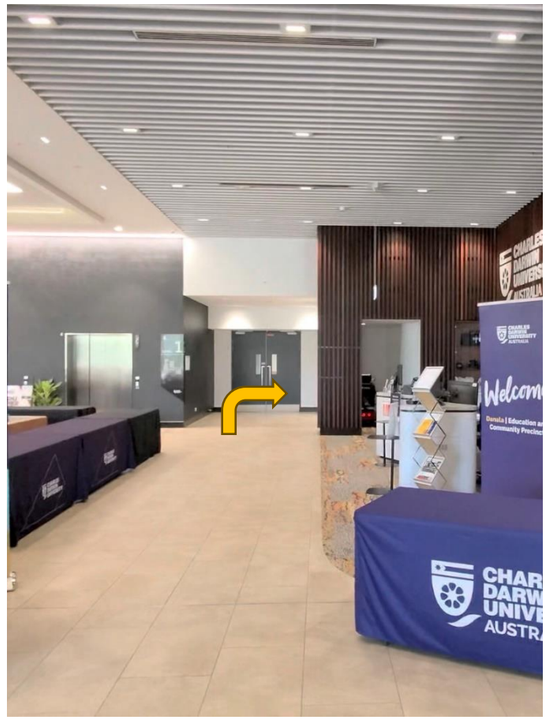

A wide staircase with colourful seat cushions has a handrail along the left side.

Lift

Toilets, lifts and stairs are available nearby to help me move around Danala.

Toilets

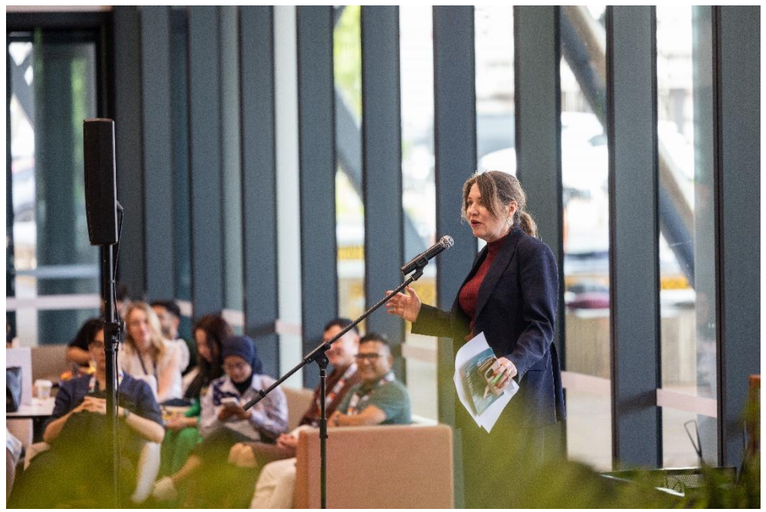

A yellow arrow shows the direction to the toilets beyond the welcome desk.

- I can use the lift or stairs to move between the Levels.
- Toilets are available on all the levels. On Level 1, an accessible toilet is to the right of the lift.
- If I need drinking water, Water bubbler is in the left side of the lift.

Speech, Smoking Ceremony and Didgeridoo Performance

People gather outdoors around a smoking vessel while a ceremony leader holds leafy branches above it.

The Vice-Chancellor speaking to students during the event.

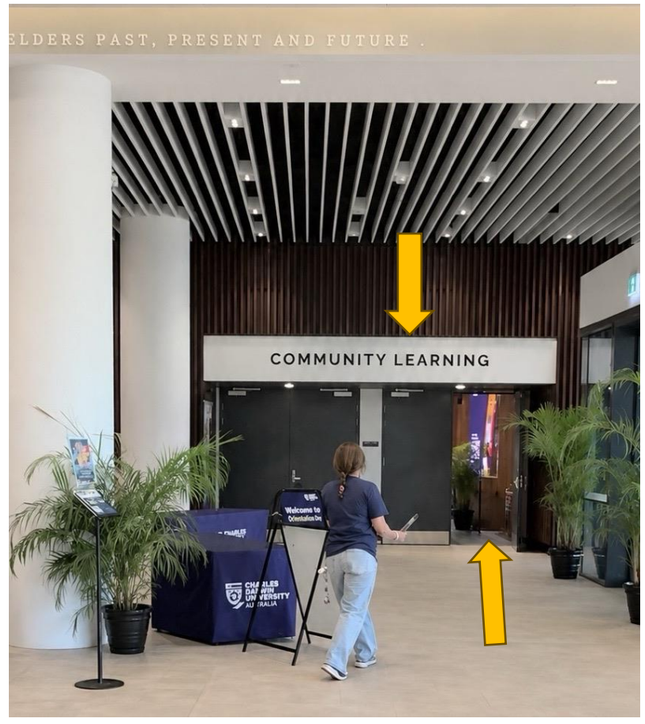

A performer plays a didgeridoo beside a microphone and sound equipment indoors.

- During Orientation, there will be a smoking ceremony, welcome to country speech and a didgeridoo performance.
- At the smoking ceremony, I may see and smell smoke from burning leaves. I can watch from a distance and follow the ceremony leader’s guidance.
- The didgeridoo makes a deep sound that may feel loud through the speakers, If I need a break from the smoke or sound, I can move further away or ask a CDU staff member for help.

Finding My Session Rooms

Yellow arrows point to the Festival Learning sign and entrance beside the Speed Friending tables.

Yellow arrows highlight the Community Learning sign and doorway.

- Community Learning is on the right-hand side of the Welcome Desk.
- Festival Learning is next to the Speed Friending area.
- I can check the room signs or ask a CDU staff member to help me find my session.

Food and Drinks

CDU team members stand behind a table with plates of food available between sessions, beside the stairs.

CDU team members stand behind a table with takeaway food containers and cutlery ready before the sessions begin.

- Food and drinks will be available in the Level 1 foyer. I can exchange the drink voucher from my welcome pack for a drink.
- Free lunch will be available around 12:30 PM. When the food is ready, I can go to the food table next to the stairs.
- If I have questions about the food (ingredients) or need help, I can ask a CDU staff member.

Gentle reminder

- I will attend the sessions. I can choose to join in or watch the social activities.
- If it feels busy or noisy, I can take a break and return when I am ready. The Dalmugurra Safe and Sensory Space is on Level 2, Room 2.15.
- I can use my drink voucher and enjoy a free lunch in the Level 1 foyer.
- I can ask a CDU staff member for help at any time.

For accessibility questions or requirements, I can email: studentlife@cdu.edu.au