Even small improvements in teacher effectiveness can impact student achievement.

Based on Dr Robert J. Marzano’s best-selling book The Art & Science of Teaching, this interactive, engaging workshop introduces and explains the instructional framework from The Art & Science of Teaching. Participants learn the 10 design questions to ask when planning a unit of instruction, the 3 segments of each lesson to prepare, and the 41 elements of effective teaching to master, with specific attention to engagement.

Modelling, dialogue and activities show how and when to use different strategies. Schools and regions can put this comprehensive framework of effective teaching into place immediately or use the training to generate their own models. Each workshop will be customised to the context in which you work and the needs of the participants.

Outcomes

• Acquire a common language of instruction.
• Master essential instructional routines such as providing clear learning goals and defining levels of proficiency.
• Acquire strategies for delivering new content, and practice them to deepen understanding.
• Discover the importance of applying knowledge by generating and testing hypotheses.
• Learn important teacher behaviours for engaging students and building strong relationships.
• Ensure high expectations for all students
