CDU Short Courses

WRITING EFFECTIVE MINUTES

A 1 day course developed by the Australian Institute of Management and facilitated by Charles Darwin University.

This course provides practical tools and techniques for ensuring that meeting minutes provide a record of decisions made by teams, work groups and committees. This one-day course provides a thorough introduction to minute taking and the skills you need to write professional minutes.

THIS COURSE IS RIGHT FOR YOU:
If you take minutes as part of your role either in occasional team meetings or regular formal meetings.

YOUR EMPLOYER WILL BENEFIT BECAUSE:
You will capture decisions and actions from meetings will be captured accurately and succinctly leading to action, increased productivity and clarity.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:
- Understand the function and role of minutes and the minute taker
- Take clear and accurate minutes
- Develop strategies to deal with jargon and technical language
- Develop the skills of listening and summarising
- Work effectively with the Chair

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT
T. 08 8946 6065
E. shortcourses@cdu.edu.au
W. www.cdu.edu.au/shortcourses